

Instructions for Updating an Undergraduate Application

- WHEN: Use the Application Update Form when requesting changes to your original application information, such as term of entry, major or campus, or when submitting changes in contact information.
- FEE: If you do not update within 12 months from your originally requested term of entry, you must submit a new application with a new application fee. Click on “Apply-Undergraduate” on the www.usf.edu home page to access the application.
- DEPOSITS: If you originally applied and were admitted as a first time in college freshman and you paid the $200 admission deposit, please be aware that the deposit is non-refundable and is not transferable to a new term of entry. If updated and admitted as a freshman, you must pay the $200 admission deposit for your new term of entry.
- CHANGES: The complete form must include:
- Your full legal name, USF ID, change of address, phone number and e-mail address.
  - The original and new term of entry.
  - A listing of any additional colleges or universities, dates of attendance, test scores, degrees awarded or courses completed since you attended USF or prior to enrollment at USF that are not included on your original application.
  - If you are a former degree-seeking student, and have attended another institution since leaving USF, you are required to submit your college transcripts before a decision on re-admission can be rendered.
- REQUIREMENTS: USF requires a minimum of 30 transferable credits to be considered for transfer admissions. If admissions requirements have changed since your original application for USF, you must meet the criteria in effect for the new term of entry requested.
- RESIDENCY: Submit a new Residency Affidavit with supporting documentation to either maintain or update your residency for tuition purposes. The residency Affidavit may be downloaded on the website at: <http://www.usf.edu/admissions/pdf/residency.pdf>
- CONDUCT: If there is any change in your response to the conduct questions from your original application, you are required to submit additional information depending on your response to the conduct questions. The conduct form may be downloaded on the website at: <http://www.usf.edu/admissions/pdf/Conduct-statement.pdf>
