

- Students holding an F-1 visa are not allowed to work more than 20 hours per week. The only exception to this is during USF recognized school breaks as determined by the Academic Calendar.
- Visitors (B1/B2 and Visa Waivers) cannot be put on payroll as an employee. For further information on Visitors VISA's, contact International Services (IS).
- Some J scholars can receive payment for certain types of work through USF. For further information on J scholars and the types of payments for which they can be compensated, contact IS.